Call me Desperate but I don't care,
Because in love everything's fair,
I wish we stay together someday or the other,
N i'll wait for that day to come rather,
I fall apart every night,
Thinking maybe what everyone say is right,
That loving you is an Obstacle,
But baby, with You I know i'll not tumble,
Because You give me hope and strength,
And with You i'll cross a hurdle of any length,
My world is complete with You,
And I even miss my smile without You.
